

THE GREAT BARN

The Great Barn is the one building still standing in the Manor Farm area which was erected by the monks of Bec. It has been dated by its carpentry techniques to 1280-1300. When built it probably looked much as shown in the drawing on page 42. Its timber-frame stood on a flint cill. The lean-to outbuildings on the west side are later additions.

St Catherines Manor

Probable 13th century layout